

A TRIBUTE TO EARLY STEVE HACKETT

The Steppes formed with the aim of bringing to the stage the musical tales from Steve Hackett's Charisma albums: Voyage of the Acolyte, Please Don't Touch, Spectral Mornings, Defector, Cured, and Highly Strung.

Veteran musicians from Los Angeles comprise the Steppes:

- Scott Connor – Drums (Circa, Billy Sherwood)
- Randy George – Bass (Neal Morse Band, Ajalon)
- Pamela George – Vocals, Guitars, Keys
- Peter Matuchniak – Guitars (Gekko Projekt)
- Jonathan Sindelman – Keyboards (Alan White band)

With a special focus on recreating the original studio performances, including classic songs never played live during those original tours (or not played since). Following their concert debut, word quickly spread garnering international acclaim from fans, prominent figures within Genesis circles, and recognition from the original members of Hackett's first touring band.

"The accuracy and level of detail is outstanding"

Nick Magnus

Hackett Keyboardist 1978-89

"Keeping the flame alive, recreating those magic moments"

Dik Cadbury

Hackett bassist 1978-80

"A wonderful inspiring experience"

Armando Gallo

Official Genesis Biographer

"A worthy tribute to Steve Hackett's legacy"

Alan Hewitt

Official Hackett Biographer